EDITORIAL

Just what does the "little woman" do after hubby goes off to work in the morning? Some men are naive enough to think that a housewife is happy cooking and cleaning and watching the soaps — but do they have a lot to learn! Probably the best way to get educated is by turning the page and gazing up on the horny housewives within the covers of this magazine. Sweet and docile little wives they're not!

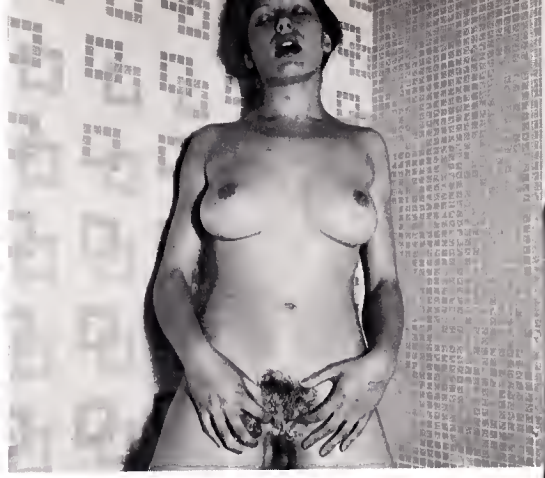

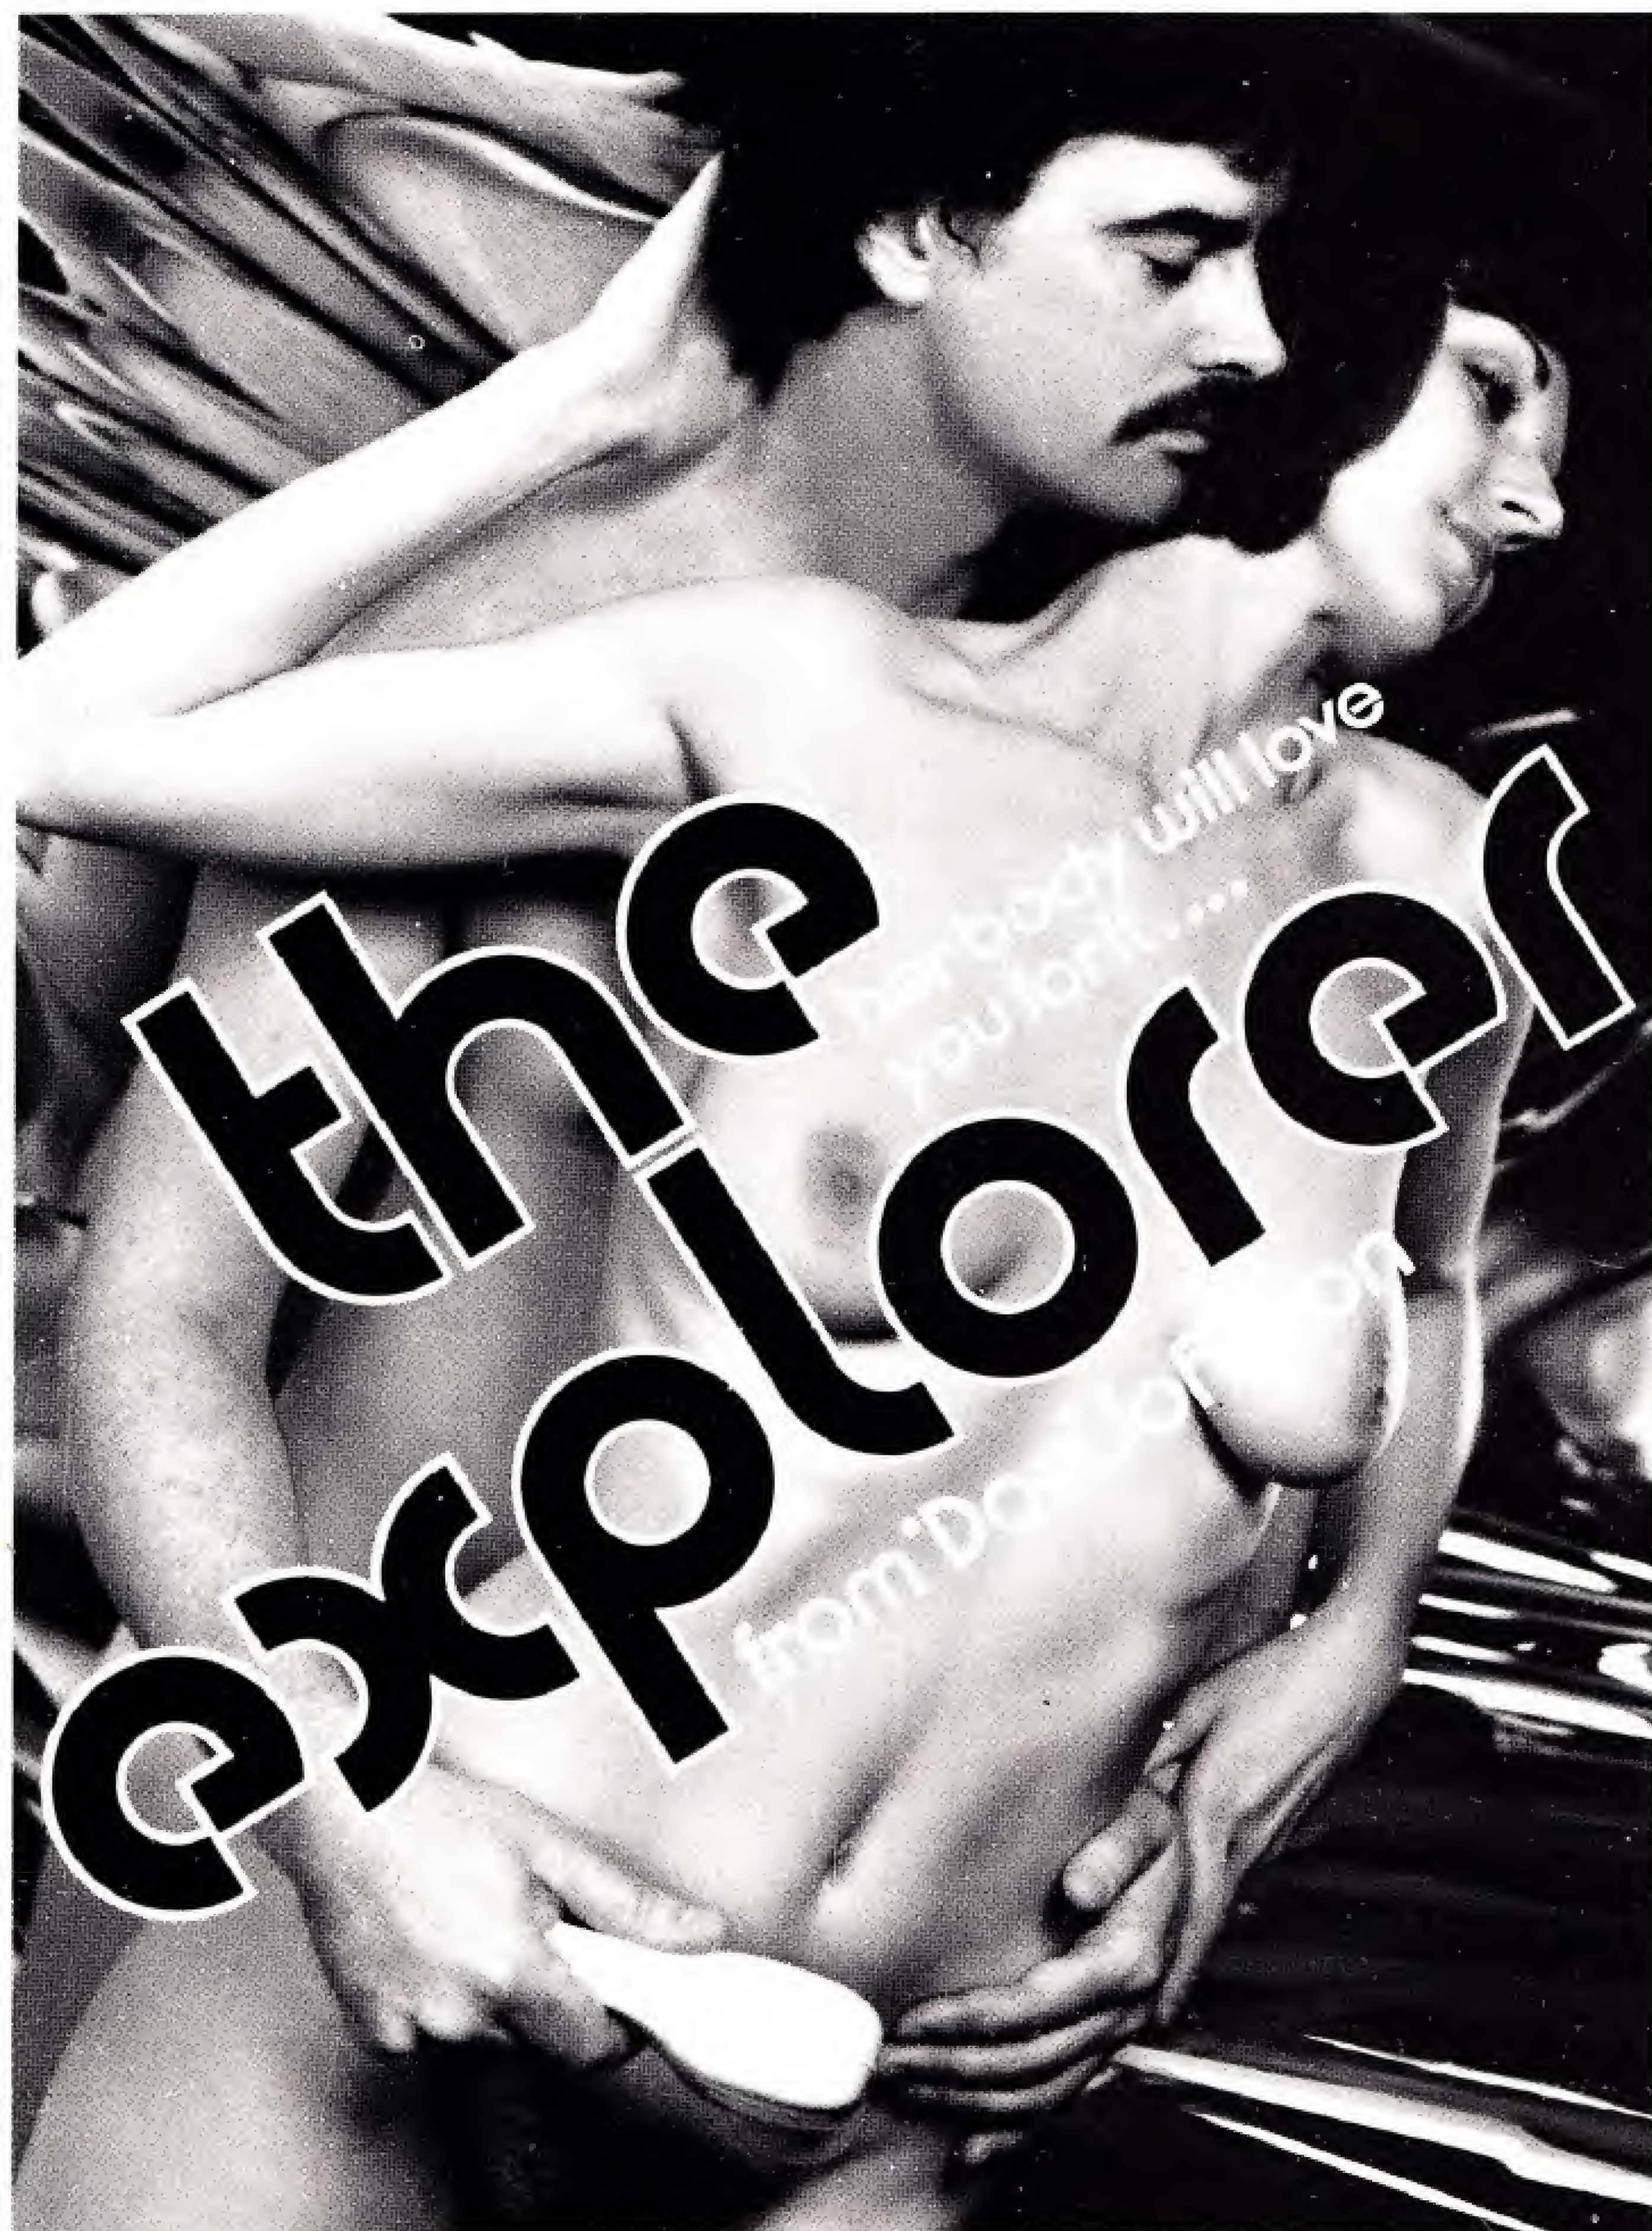

Bring her body to a new height in physical response with The Explorer, 'Doc' Johnson's newest love aid to balance the male-female orgasm range. Her climax takes longer and in many cases getting her there can frustrate your spontaneity. The Explorer will change all of that. Massage her body from head to toe with the five attachments. Discover her response from the gentle surface tingle . . . to the deep, rolling vibration of Explorer's two magic vibration levels. Vibration stirs physical response, until now, unheard of before hours of foreplay. Use The Explorer before sex to bring about a fever pitch . . . create clitoral orgasm during coitus . . . after sex to stimulate her again and again while you recoup.

Please send _____ Explorer(s) including body attachments, @ 19.95. Attachments include: facial massager; body massager; scalp massager; penis stimulator; clitoral stimulator.
